Academic Year 2016 – 2017

Dear Class of 1961,

My name is Mike McHale, and I am a freshman here at the Cornell School of Hotel Administration. I would like to extend my deepest gratitude to all the members of this class, who have aided me in attending this prestigious school. While applying to schools, my mother always told me to apply to the schools I want to go and that we'll worry about the money later. Being accepted into Cornell was a blessing, and then to receive the generous aid from you was another. With your help, I am able to attend the most prestigious hospitality school in the world, for which I could not be more grateful. As Cornell alumni, I am sure you realize how great of a gift it is to be able to go to Cornell and how greatly it impacts your life. I truly thank you for this opportunity you have given me, and I promise you that I will not waste it.

Best regards,
Mike McHale
